

I do not want the no call list to be made weaker. I don't want to be hounded for months because I terminated a service. I don't want masses of subsidiaries and associates to call me because one got his "nose under the tent".